

The American Legion

The Daniel W. Dowling Post, Department of Pennsylvania, No. 769 was chartered as follows by the National Executive Committee of The American Legion on 22 August 1949:

Andrew Lewis, Jr.	George S. Cargenter	Charles W. Jones
John W. Gaskins	Samuel Bryson, Sr.	Blake Dean, Jr.
Sam C. Brant	James A. McCry	Joseph M. Tate
William H. Hubert, Jr.	Frank D. Taylor, Jr.	Richard D. Johnson
James H. Flowers	Robert E. Parker	Henry Brown
Clarence C. Wood	George Taylor	Donald E. Gant

As formed by these 18 African American Veterans returning from racially segregated units after World War II, #769 was named in honor of Penn's native and African American Civil War volunteer Daniel W. Dowling. Since our earliest days, we have always served our community and area veterans from this Post, built and maintained by the members.

